Professional Disclosure Statement and Informed Consent

Please Initial Each Item:

_____ The psychotherapy and/or counseling will be conducted by a qualified psychotherapist/counselor.

_____ I understand according to the professional licensing law and professional ethics, these professional counselors are qualified to help me be released to experience further interpersonal and intrapersonal development.

_____ Specific objectives and methods are to be agreed upon in consultation with the therapist.

_____ The therapist is a consultant and resource professional. His/her suggestions may be freely accepted or rejected by the client. Therefore, decisions made during and after therapy are the responsibility of the client.

_____ Consultations, test results and disclosures between the counselor and the client will be held in confidence within the restrictions of Texas State Law. These exceptions to confidentiality include cases in which: (1) illegal activity is occurring (such as physical or sexual abuse); (2) the purpose of counseling is to obtain a court evaluation; or (3) legal action regarding the therapy itself (such as a malpractice suit) is in progress. The counselors are ethically and legally responsible to protect and maintain the counseling relationship while not in conflict with the basic laws of society.

_____ I affirm that I have read all the conditions above and that they have been fully explained to my satisfaction. I understand and agree to them freely and without reservation.

_____ I understand that counselor, Amy Dojahn, does not provide 24- hour crisis counseling. Should I experience an emergency necessitating immediate mental health attention, I will immediately call 9-1-1 or go to an emergency room for assistance.

_____ I understand that I am in control of the counseling relationship and may choose at any time to end our therapeutic relationship. If at any time I am dissatisfied with the counseling services provided me, I have the right to inform my counselor. If I do not feel that my complaint is resolved, I may file a formal complaint through contact with the Texas Board of Examiners of Licensed Professional Counselors at 1-800-942-5540.

_____ I understand that our paths may cross in social situations but that our therapeutic relationship comes first, along with protection of my confidentiality, and my counselor will not initiate conversation.

_____ Should I believe that a referral is needed, Amy Dojahn will provide some alternatives including programs and/or people who may be able to assist me.

_____ I understand that my records and all of our communications become part of the clinical record. Records are the property of Amy Dojahn, LPC. Adult client records are disposed of seven (7) years after the client has stopped receiving services.

_____ I understand that while most of our communication is confidential there are, however, circumstances when disclosure can occur without my prior consent. The following are typical, but not exhaustive, examples of situations and circumstances under which information may be disclosed without prior consent:

- I am a danger to myself or someone else.
- In situations of suspected child, spouse, or elder abuse, it is the duty of the mental health provider to notify medical, legal or other authorities.
- You disclose sexual contact with another mental health professional.
- If you are involved in legal action/proceedings, your records may be subject to subpoena or lawful directive from a court.
- If ordered by a court to disclose information.
- You direct me, Amy Dojahn, in writing to release your records.
- Required by law to disclose information.

Statement of Understanding

I have read the above and understand the nature of services providers and the Limits of Confidentiality outlined above and I solemnly swear that all of the above information is true to the best of my knowledge.
